Husband of the appellant died in a motor accident. The tribunal has awarded an amount of Rs.2,81,500/- with 7% interest. Deceased had no children. Only widow and aged mother were the claimants. Mother did not file an appeal and she is assumed as a representative for him. Considering the age of the motor accident victim at the time of accident, that is, 42 years, 13 was taken as the multiplier. Considering the number of dependents and the total amount granted, we are of the view that no interference is required in the award and hence this appeal is dismissed.
